Classroom News

Living Wax Museum

This week we took our sticky notes and organized the information into a plan for writing paragraphs. We will use our planning to write reports next week. The due date for the final report will be Friday, March 24th.

All students will need to have a costume for our final presentation on April 12th. They should begin to think about what they want to wear to allow time to gather any supplies needed.

After Spring Break, we will use our reports to write a short 1 minute speech. Students will need to have the speech memorized by April 7th.

Thank you all in advance for all your help on this project.
