

Classroom News

We had a great field trip this week with chilly but dry weather! The students had a fun time seeing the Fort and learning about what life was like there during the fur trappers and Lewis & Clark. We wrapped up our social studies chapter today, and the chapter 2 test will be next Tuesday. If your child will be out on Tuesday, please plan to take it Monday, November 28th.

Please come by the classroom to check out our turkeys! The students did an outstanding job decorating their turkeys in a disguise, and their stories are hilarious to read. If you get a chance, please swing by to check them out. 😊
